Dear Mr.

Your letter of November 28th and its attached personnel data has been given to me for acknowledgment in General Smith's temporary absence from the office. While there is no immediate possibility of an appointment with the Director, I should myself like the chance to talk with you. I will be glad to see you at a mutually convenient time and will make certain that your papers are most thoroughly examined by our Personnel people. You can reach me on

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director
